Canons' Island Pilgrimage: Canons' Island is the location of a medieval Abbey and an ancient burial ground. In 1990 the tradition of going on pilgrimage to the Canons' Island was revived. This year we plan to celebrate Mass in the ruins of the old Monastery on Sunday, 18th August. This year the pilgrimage will involve all three parishes that form the Radharc na nOilean cluster (Coolmeen-Cranny, Kildysart and Ballynacally-Lissycasey).

With Thanks: The O'Keeffe family sent us the following message after the funeral of their brother Fr Jack. "We would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank all the people of the parish who were involved with Jack's funeral. We are aware of the huge effort by so many and will forever remain grateful for the warm welcome to us as a family and to all who attended the funeral."
